 SPREY
PROPERTY

This beautiful stone detached three storey family home of circa 2000sq ft of living accommodation, is positioned within the desirable village of Langham, well-placed for amenities, road and rail links as well as a varied choice of both private and state-run schools within a short distance.

The current owners have maintained and enhanced their family home over the last few years and it now offers the best of both worlds; with that all-important modern feel open plan kitchen dining, sitting room providing fantastic entertaining space, along with a separate living room with wood burner. A utility room and w/c complete this floor. Further features of this versatile home are bathrooms provided on first and second floors, en-suite to the principal bedroom along with built-in wardrobes, which are also to bedrooms four and five.

Externally there is a block paved driveway with parking for several vehicles, sided gated access to the rear garden, which is mainly lain to lawn, with mature shrub borders and a large patio area, idea for alfresco dining.
