

Church Lane, Ridlington Offers In Excess Of £2,300,000

This imposing Ironstone home is situated on an elevated position in the picturesque village of Ridlington.

Offering over 5000 sq ft of accommodation, this property has been finished to an exceptional standard combining traditional style with state-of-the-art technology and has reached its maximum energy efficiency potential.

Guiding you into the grounds is a curved iron stone wall, with electric gated entrance. The driveway leads to a triple garage and parking for multiple vehicles.

Above the garages is a further  $11m \times 5m$  of accommodation which has a multitude of uses according to ones needs.

The double fronted aspect of the property lends itself to an impressive entrance hall with central staircase.

Leading from the grand hall is the dual aspect sitting room, study, snug with built-in media wall and laundry room. The rear lobby combines a boot room and cloakroom.

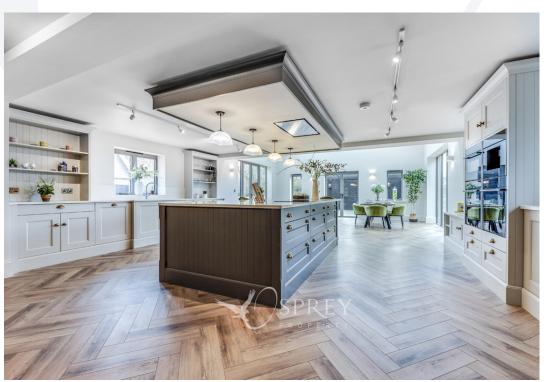

The kitchen is open plan, encompassing the vaulted dining and family area, with doors to the outdoor arbour kitchen, and has an impressive central island, and walk-in pantry. The units are complimented with quartz worktops.

On the first floor are the principle and guest suites, providing dressing rooms and en-suite bathrooms as well as two further bedrooms with en-suites.

To the second floor are two bedrooms with far reaching views and bathroom.

Private, wrap around gardens surround this beautiful home.
